

*A smile costs nothing and brings a lot,
It enriches those who receive it
Without impoverishing those who give it.
It lasts only a moment
But its memory is sometimes eternal.*

*No one is rich enough to go without it,
No one is poor enough for it to be worthless,
No one is despicable enough not to deserve it.*

*It creates happiness at home, supports in business and at work,
It is the delicate sign of friendship.*

*A smile gives rest to the tired,
Gives courage to the most discouraged.*

*It cannot be bought, lent or stolen
And it only has value from the moment it is given.*

*And if sometimes you meet a person
Who no longer knows how to smile,
Be generous, give them yours,
Because no one is more in need of a smile
Than the one who can't give one to others...*

Anonymous (Unofficial Translation)
Adapted from "How to make friends" (Dale Carnegie)